

Write Night

Write Night: A Gathering of Puget Sound Fiction & Nonfiction Writers

Write Night is a weekly facilitated writer's support/critique class. Enjoy mini workshops, creative writing exercises, and a chance to share your writing with people who understand you. Get regular feedback and create a support system for your writing life. Write Night can become your built-in deadline and will help you write more, high-quality manuscripts. You need this! Sign up today!

Thursday evenings at the Richmond Masonic Hall

185th St. & Linden Ave. N. (a block west of Hwy 99, SW corner) in Shoreline.

6:30 pm Social Time 7:00 Mini-Workshop 7:30 Manuscript Sharing

Free Open House on January 12th—come and check us out!

Winter Session Jan. 19—Feb. 23, 2012

Your Write Night Instructors:

CHRISTINE DUBOIS is an award-winning nonfiction writer and editor. Her warmth, knowledge, and enthusiasm make her a popular instructor.

LESLIE ADKINS is a fiction writer and well received writing instructor all around the Northwest. She has written eight novels, six of them mysteries. She has participated in a writing critique group herself for over 15 years.

Cost for Write Night is just $90 for a 6-week session 1/19—2/23/12

Drop ins welcome at $20/class.

Cash or checks only.

For more information, email cdubois425@yahoo.com or leslieadkins@live.com.

Find us on Facebook

